MARTIAL LAW IS DECLARED AFTER KILLINGS OCCUR

Albania Expresses Regret and Deplores Crime as Effort to Discredit Nation—Strong Measures to Arrest Culprits.

(By The Associated Press.)
ROME, April 7.—Martial law has been proclaimed in Albania following the murder of two American merchants waylaid on the Albanian highway, according to dispatches from Albanian quarters today. A dispatch to the Stefani Agency, which first reported the crime last night, says the Americans killed were named Corman and De Long, but gives no particulars.

The names of the murdered Americans were given out by the American Embassy as Robert Louis Coleman, of San Francisco and George B. De Long, of New York City.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 7.—George B. DeLong, of New York, and Robert Louis Coleman, of San Francisco, who were waylaid and murdered on an Albanian highway, were on their way to Paris and London after a trip through the Mediterranean, Richard Lounsbury, son of Mrs. De Long, declared today.

Mr. De Long, a son of Senator De Long, of California, and up until seven years ago was a resident of that State, was 49 years old and a retired real estate broker.

Albania Regrets Crime.
(By The Associated Press.)
LONDON, April 7.—The Albanian Press Bureau in London today received the following dispatch from Tirana, dated Sunday:
"At 10 o'clock Sunday morning, two American merchants were killed by unknown persons on the Albanian highway, about 100 kilometers from Tirana. The Albanian government and the Tirana population are profoundly moved by the crime, which they deeply regret. This is the first time in Albania where there has been a crime of this kind. The Albanian government has been committed to the maintenance of the object of the greatest hospitality and sympathy on the part of the population. The Albanian government is convinced that the crime was committed with the intention of discrediting the Albanian State in the eyes of the world. The government immediately took strong measures to secure the arrest and punishment of the culprits."

When Mrs. Harry C. Cushing 3rd (upper left) became the mother of a baby boy the other day it made Mrs. Gloria Morgan (upper right) a "grandma" at the age of 19. It happens this way. ## REFITTED SHIP ON TEST TRIP

The Republic, With Shipping Board Party, Leaves Pier

(By The Associated Press.)
NEWPORT NEWS, April 7.—Bound for the Virginia capes for an all-day trip in the course of which she will be put through the most strenuous tests, the United States Shipping Board liner Republic, formerly the President Buchanan, at 5 o'clock this morning, left the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company pier at which she has lain for a year undergoing complete refitting.

The ship's board party is headed by Admiral W. S. Benson, who has charge of the board's refitting program. Chairman T. V. O'Connor having been prevented from making the trip on account of having business before Congress in connection with section 28 of the Merchant Marine act of 1920, the failure of which to be put into effect as planned by the board is feared by board members, would drive the American flag from the seas entirely.

Other members of the party include Vice-Chairman E. C. Plummer, Commissioner Meyer Lussner, Commissioner F. L. Thompson, Commissioner Bert E. Haney, and Commissioner W. S. Hill.

Stubborn Fire In Elks Basement

City firemen last night wrestled for several hours with a small but stubborn fire which developed under the floor in the basement of the Elks' Home on Main street. The Young Women's Christian Association tea room which occupies the basement suffered a small fire which filled the quarters the actual damage by fire being apparently slight. The blaze small and insignificant as it appeared to be, kept the Patton street department up virtually all night. The fire was received at 12:30 o'clock and a third at 2:30 o'clock because of the rekindling of the blaze at various points underneath the floor. In order that roomers in the building might not be in danger, the fire was kept under control.

The first call was received at half past seven o'clock in the evening. The flooring underneath the gas range became ignited, just how is not known, unless it was from the heat of the stove. The floor is so close to the earth that there is no room for the body of a man and as the fire had gained its hold on a number of sills running under the entire house, it was impossible to locate it and to extinguish it effectively without cutting through the floor. The flames burst forth at one point in the tea room while in the pantry and in the kitchen smoke and fire found their way into the hall. Firemen were able to get under the floor but it was almost impossible to do effective work. When the fire appeared to be out the firemen left only to be recalled later in the night by another outbreak of the flames.

Chief Mitchell who stayed at the fire for several hours round the Patton street firemen and the gas stove was uncoupled and removed this revealing a good sized hole burn in the flooring.

At the tea room this morning it was said that the establishment would be operated just as soon as the quarters had been cleaned and the pungent aroma of smoke removed. A thorough examination of the flooring had been made this morning but the structural damage is not believed to be serious and will not represent more than a few hundred dollars' loss.

PROPOSAL MADE BY SEN. PEPPER DRAWS COMMENT

2 Killed In Fight With the Ku Klux

(By The Associated Press.)
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 7.—While State troopers and county detectives continued their investigation of Saturday night's fight between residents of the mining village of Lilly, and visiting Ku Klux Klansmen in which two of the townspeople were killed, District Attorney D. P. Wiener, of Cambria county, today prepared to enter charges of riot and murder against 28 men. Twenty-five of the prisoners said to be Klansmen were arrested here as they stepped from a special train which brought them from Lilly after the fight. Four residents of Lilly were arrested there by the State police.

Arrangements are being made today for the funeral of Philip Conrad and Frank Masco, who was removed to an Altoona hospital. He was shot in the head. More than a score of others were less seriously wounded, including four women, who, the police reported, were attacked when they cheered the parading Klansmen.

In a statement made public today, S. D. Rich, an official of the league, said the Klansmen were not responsible for the fight. "They were forced to defend their lives when assaulted," he said.

County Almshouse Fate to Come Up at Chatham Tues.

The county supervisors who are today in monthly session at Chatham will meet again there tomorrow at which time the county welfare board will be present to discuss the Pittsylvania almshouse situation. Recently members of the welfare board and the board of supervisors have been over the property and are thoroughly familiar with the problem. Just what recommendation will be made by the welfare board is not positively known but it is said that the board favors the sale of the present property and the building of a new almshouse at Chatham unless some satisfactory arrangement can be made with Danville or some other adjacent county for the keep of the county's poor.

It is understood, however, that no immediate change can be made and whatever plan is determined upon tomorrow will not be carried out until next fall as the county farm has been leased and it would be impossible to disturb the present arrangement.

The Danville city home commission is interested in the county problem and would not be averse to discussing the amalgamation of the institutions which would reduce the cost of operation.

Another matter to be determined tomorrow is the salary which shall be paid to the county probation officer.

FATHER HERE IN SEARCH OF MAN WHO "STOLE" HIS DAUGHTER, ALSO AN AUTO

W. A. Hensley, of Alamance county, N. C., living ten miles west of Burlington came to Danville this morning in pursuit of Robert White who he states, "stole" his 16 year old daughter, Cora Lee Hensley, late Saturday night and carried her away. Hensley came here to look for a complaint with the police having been advised that his daughter and her companion were seen on the streets of Danville at mid night on Saturday. White, he says, has relatives here but inquiries made of them failed to reveal the couple here. It is thought that the couple may be at Lynchburg for White also said to have relatives there.

AND NOW WE HAVE WRECK-PROOF TRAINS

WRECK (LIKE THE ONE SHOWN IN THE LOWER PICTURE) WILL BE AVOIDED BY AUTOMATIC BRAKE CONTROL SYSTEMS. BRAKE DEVICE IS ATTACHED TO TENDER AND ENGINE (UPPER PICTURE RAMP BY WHICH ELECTRIC IMPULSES ARE TRANSMITTED TO THE LOCOMOTIVE (SHOWN IN CIRCLE).

CHICAGO April 7.—Mechanical devices are being installed on three-fifths of the railroads in the country in an effort to make them wreck-proof.

By order of the Interstate Commerce Commission 49 of the largest railroads must have an approved system of automatic train control installed on their 150,000 miles of track by Jan. 1. One time the Rock Island, has complied to date.

First cost of installing this system has been estimated at $150,000,000 for all the roads affected. Cost of maintaining the devices would be about $15,000,000 more annually.

Automatic train control furnishes the missing link between roadside block signal and the train. It makes train running proof against human error by working air brakes automatically in case of danger, whether the engineer sees the red signal or not.

The wreck of the Twentieth Century limited near Erie, Pa., last winter would never have occurred had signal engineers had this control system been in use. When the first section stopped the second section would have been brought to a stop at safe distance behind.

Out of the thousands of devices submitted to the Interstate Commerce Commission for approval, only that adopted by the Rock Island has gained its sanction. This is due however to the fact that the I. C. C. refuses to review a system until it has been installed on an entire line.

The automatic train control device adopted by the Rock Island is only one of two distinct types: the intermittent and the continuous systems.

The intermittent system is one by which a series of either of ramps or of magnetic contacts are placed at regular intervals along the track to control the brake mechanism of passing locomotives. Thus trains are subject to automatic control at intermittent intervals.

Under the continuous contact system an electric current passes through the entire track, so that the train may be placed under immediate control no matter where it happens to be.

By the continuous control system when a train enters a block it de-energizes the track behind for one block and controls the relay system of electric control on blocks farther behind, so that trains following can be kept down to certain specified "speeds."

There is a similar speed control system for the intermittent type. It is the de-energizing of the track ramp or magnet that causes the current to pass through these devices the engineer gets a signal in his cab that the road is clear.

Double Protection
There is hat the engineers call an "acknowledging feature" in connection with the speed control system by which an engineer forced to go less than 20 miles an hour must press an acknowledging button to show he is alert and careful of the train he is stopped automatically.

SAVATH PROPOSES AN EXTENSION PRESENT IMMIGRATION QUOTA

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 4.—On the eve of the House consideration of the Johnson Immigration bill Representative Savath, Democrat, Illinois, introduced today a resolution proposing extension of the present three percent quota law, based on the 1910 census, to December 31, 1935 and creation of a commission to study the immigration problem. The existing bill, unless amended or supplanted by other legislation, will automatically expire June 30 next.

The commission suggested by Mr. Savath, who is one of the members of the House Immigration Committee, is opposed to the bill sponsored by Chairman Johnson, would be composed of two senators, two members of the House and three others to be appointed by the president as representatives of industrial labor and agricultural interests.

The Johnson bill which would fix immigration quotas at 150,000 per cent based on the 1910 census provides for examination overseas of prospective immigrants and practically bars Japanese from entry into the United States. It will come up in the House tomorrow under rules limiting general debate to ten hours. Those in charge of the measure do not expect a final vote before the latter part of next week.

Coughing only aggravates a cough

Control coughing—the first step in curing a cough.

COUGHS are frequently due merely to irritation caused by a congested condition of throat and lung tissue. Persistent hacking will then only increase the congestion and continue the cough indefinitely. Such coughs can and should be stopped at once because they are a futile waste of strength. Dr. King's New Discovery checks coughing quickly and without any bad after-effects. It quiets violent throat and lung spasms and gives the congestion a chance to clear away. It has an agreeable taste. All druggists.

HELPFUL HINTS

UPHOLSTERY

Upholstery can be dry-cleaned with starch and washing sifter. Softer and applied thickly all over it. If there are any grimy spaces, wet these with alcohol before putting on the powder. Let stand for a day or so and brush off with a stiff brush.

MEDIUM SIZED

In selecting vegetables choose the medium sized ones. Large vegetables are apt to be woody and require more fuel to cook them.

CLEANING WATER

Water that is milky or turbid may be cleared with alum.

FILTERS

Filters for household use must always be kept very clean or they will become filled with impurities and make the water that passes through them fouler instead of purer.

WASH IMMEDIATELY

Before you start to bake, collect all the dishes, spoons and other utensils that will be needed and when you have finished, wash these immediately.

HOLDS COLOR

Dip cream net, or madras curtains in hay tea or a weak solution of coffee water after rinsing if you would keep the original color.

FRUIT CROP UNDAUNED

RICHMOND, April 3.—Little or no damage was done to the fruit crop of Virginia by the heavy frosts of the past two nights. Henry M. An item in the public press states that General Kurapatkin, the commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, the Russo-Japanese war, is the village librarian in Sheshurino, in Pskov province, Russia. After in years of military service, he is said to be living now in obscurity.—Public Librarian.

Western Library Aids Foreigners.
Americanization work has somewhat slipped from public attention, but it is just as important now as ever. The library lends a personal letter to every foreigner who applies at the Naturalization office for citizenship, inviting him to use books in his own language and to borrow books for learning English and elementary works on American history and government. The library also has a special charge of this work, also visits the public school night classes for foreigners and some of the branch libraries have classes in English for foreign-born persons. By such a plan the foreigner and new citizen is welcomed to a new country where he may learn something of their principles and customs, and their newly adopted country. A Naturalization Study Guide, Washington, D. C., is available.

NIGHT LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT

Sally Atherton's husband very ill. Hold up no hope of his recovery. She has gone to him. Glad to know that Syd is better. Both little Jack and myself miss you, unceasingly. Letter follows. Lovingly, LESLIE.

Telegram From John Alden Prescott to Sally Atherton:

Just heard your husband very ill. Is there anything I can do? JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT.

Sam died last night. Nothing you can do although I am grateful for your offer to help. I will be back at the office the day after. SALLY ATHERTON.

Telegram From John Alden Prescott to Smith & Smith, Florists:

Send to Mrs. Sally Atherton, 722 Foxhall Place, Pittsburgh, five dozen American Beauty roses, my card. JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT.

Letter From Leslie Prescott to John Alden Prescott:

I am so glad to know, dearest, that Syd is getting better. I was absolutely delighted with the dear little coral god that he sent to me through you. It was awfully sweet of him. I shall keep it among my most treasured possessions.

I took it down yesterday to Crother's to have it attached to that platinum wire bracelet that Alice sent to me from England some time ago.

As I showed the little idol to the salesman a stranger who was standing by—a very distinguished man about sixty—exclaimed in surprise and admiration.

"Pardon me, madam, I have spent all my life in the study of Chinese art and Chinese traditions. I wonder if you know that this bit of coral is absolutely priceless. It is one of the two gods that are worshiped by lovers, one of the twin gods that every lover hopes to present to his sweetheart while he retains the other. It is very old. No one knows the artist who carved it, as it comes from before the Ming dynasty. Have you or your husband ever owned one?"

I explained to him that I was quite sure my husband did not have the other one; in fact, until this moment I did not know there was another one.

The man's face fell. He looked positively agitated.

"It would have been better had you never found it," he said. "One of these little gods spells unhappiness—at least love unrequited, one of them, one carried by the man who loves you and one carried by yourself, would make perfect happiness for you both."

Little Jack is calling. Will finish this letter later. (Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

TOMORROW: More of the letter from Leslie Prescott to John Alden Prescott.

FASHION NOTES

WHITE, CREAM LACE

White or cream lace this season is most frequently made up over a black satin foundation, while the black lace gown is mounted on a slip of flesh-colored satin.

SHAWLINS

Knickerbockers of the same material as the frock are a part of many sport suits of jersey or alpaca.

SPORT FROCK

An unusually attractive frock for sport wear is of yellow crepe do chine with a brown suede belt worn low about the hips.

ETON COLLARS

Eton collars are extremely youthful and seen frequently on the boyish frocks so popular now. Often they are stiffly starched.

TAILORED LAPELS

Tailored lapels with notches are seen not only on suits but on the tailored frocks.

NEW COLOR

Fuchsia is one of the newest and most stunning colors. It shades effectively into the lighter reds or purples and is particularly striking when used with black.

BACKLESS GOWN

The backless gown is being exploited by some of the Parisian houses that like extreme effects. Frequently one finds a very low V in the back of a frock that shows more in the bateau line in front.

Fathers, uncles and older friends of the Girl Reserves were the guests of the banquet. The club, Miss Annie James and Miss Frances Hall, together with the Girl Reserves group, Annie Garrett made a clever and charming little toastmaster. The banquet opened with a short invocation by A. E. Garrett. The toast, mistress welcomed the guests in a very happy fashion. After the entire club sang a song of welcome, Dr. R. B. James responded to the toast. The guests who responded to toasts were Mrs. Estelle J. Hinchcliff, General Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., who gave a short synopsis of the history of the Girl Reserve movement. When Clark on "What the Girl Reserves can mean to Danville. Miss Annie James, Club adviser, told of her sincere admiration for the high ideals of the Girl Reserve code. Miss Martha Andrews, club secretary, made an earnest appeal for a summer camp. Several fathers, Mr. Bennett, J. R. Hill, and A. E. Garrett, though not on the program to speak, voluntarily voiced appreciation of the Girl Reserve movement. The fathers said that previously they had thought of the Girl Reserves as a little group coming together for recreation, but now they realized the true significance of the "Blue Triangle" of the Girl Reserves. To the girl who wears this symbol it should mean the highest type of service to God and her country. Other interesting features of the program were: A vocal solo by Winifred Culpepper and a recitation entitled "Good Old Dad," by Lila Coleman. Annie Garrett gave a humorous sketch "What a Father!" A piano solo was rendered by Jeanette Luther. The Association hymn, "Father of Lights," closed this happy occasion. The Jun-Sen "G" Girl Reserves served the guests. ### OPENING OF NEW A. & B. STORE WAS VERY GRATIFYING

The new branch of the A. & B. Stores was opened Saturday in Danville and the management was very much pleased with the first day's patronage. During the day and until late in the afternoon the store was crowded with those who came to buy and those who came to look but taken as a whole the first day's business was very gratifying. The patronage was just the class the store is catering to, that is the working class.

The store is operated primarily in the credit basis and prices compare very favorably with those of their cash competitors. In many instances they are even lower and it is felt that the establishment will be a success from the start.

The concern handles only clothing and millinery for men, ladies and children, and a very nice stock is on display, especially is the stock of men's ready-to-wear attractive and prices for the class of merchandise in the store. In the rear of the store is a fully equipped shop for altering that insures customers quick and efficient service.

An index to the volume of customers attending the opening it was stated that the 1,100 souvenirs given away were all taken before eleven o'clock.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF BOOKER'S CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDACY

SEN. MARSHALL B. BOOKER

State Senator Marshall B. Booker, of Halifax Saturday announced his candidacy for Congress from the Fifth district, subject to the primary which the District Democratic Executive Committee recently decided to hold in August. Senator Booker, by reason of his prominence in political life, has been mentioned frequently as a probable candidate for Congress and his announcement today has set friends to work in his behalf.

The public record of Senator Booker, in touch with Fifth District politics, will draw support from all sections of the district. The senator is a native of Gloucester county, Virginia, where he was born November 20, 1881. He is the son of Rev. George E. Booker, deceased, prominent minister of the Virginia conference of the M. E. Church, South. After studying law at the Richmond College and the University of Virginia, he was admitted to the Halifax bar in 1903 and soon became prominent in his profession.

His political career has been marked by frequent elevations. In November, 1905, he was elected to represent Halifax county in the House of Delegates, and served in the session of 1906. In January, 1908, he was elected clerk of the State Senate and re-elected two years later. He resigned this office in 1912 to become Commonwealth's Attorney for Halifax county, which office he held for six years. He resigned as Commonwealth's attorney in November, 1919, having been selected to the State Senate, in which he has served during the special sessions of 1919 and 1923 and the regular sessions of 1920, 1922 and 1924. He was chairman of the committee on nominations, privileges and elections, court of justice, public institutions and education, and roads and internal navigation. In 1923 he was patron of the State Senate, in order that none but the better sort may enjoy the affair.

His record in the Senate also has been marked by staunch support of co-operative marketing and he has the distinction of being the patron of three measures which are of far-reaching value to the farmers: these

Feverish Again

What is it Now?

Every mother knows the nameless dread that comes whenever the little one turns up feverish, listless and without appetite.

Always the same anxiety, the fearful question—is it going to be scarlet fever, diphtheria or some other dangerous, contagious disease?

Every mother knows that a laxative is the first thing required, but too often the ordinary laxative fails to do thorough job because it has not sufficient action on the liver.

Liv-o-lax meets the need because, besides cleansing the stomach and bowels, it clears out congested liver and so brings quicker relief.

FILM VERSION "SIX DAYS" IS COMING TO MARTINSVILLE SOON

MARTINSVILLE, Va., April 5.—An original motion picture story by the English novelist, Elinor Glyn, famous for her novel, "Three Weeks," is coming to the New Hamilton Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, April 7th and 8th. It is called "Six Days," and has been pictured by Goldwyn under the direction of Charles Brabin, who made "Driven" one of last season's biggest successes. "Six Days" tells the story of Laine Kinkston, whose mother, left penniless by the business failure and suicide of her husband, threatens to marry Laine to Sir Charles Chetwyn, an old and wealthy English family. While in Paris, Laine meets and falls in love with Dion Leslie, son of a famous actress. Dion is in reality Sir Charles' son, his mother having left Sir Charles shortly after the boy's birth. After visiting the grave of her brother on one of the battlefields of France, Laine and Dion, accompanied by a priest as a guide, are trapped in one of the old German dugouts. Unable to make their escape and facing death through exhaustion of air in six days, Laine and Dion are married by the priest just before his death. In a last frantic effort to escape, Dion and Laine fall into a chalk mine underneath the dugout, become separated and each is finally rescued. Laine's mother takes her back to England and by threatening to kill herself unless Laine consents to marry Sir Charles, forces her into a second marriage. Later Dion, recovered in body and mind, goes to claim Laine. "Six Days" is a bold drama, with swift action, and characters all drawn in bold relief. There are thrilling episodes and spectacular events in this screen story, and the public is cordially invited to come and see the

SHIP HAD TO BURN CARGO TO REACH PORT
(By The Associated Press.) NEW YORK, April 5.—Her supply of coal exhausted after she had been driven 200 miles off her course by storms encountered in her voyage from Lisbon to Bermuda, the Italian Steamship Adamello had to depend on her cargo of corkwood for fuel to carry her to port. One hundred tons of the cargo was consumed before she reached Bermuda.

The Adamello stopped at Norfolk yesterday to take on bunkers. She has on board a cargo of 1800 tons of corkwood for delivery in New York. Captain Martino reported his ship encountered nine severe storms before reaching Bermuda.

"HAVANA" CIGARS MUST BE MADE FROM CUBAN LEAF

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4.—So-called "Havana" cigars must be made of Cuban tobacco, or else the manufacturers will have to stop representing them as such and give them less exotic titles more appropriate to their domestic nature, according to the Federal Trade Commission.

The Commission has just issued a complaint against a New York tobacco dealer, James B. Hall, Jr., who is charged with misrepresenting his wares, and announced that further complaints will be issued against any other manufacturers whom it has reason to believe guilty of similar improper methods of trade.

The correspondent in this case is charged with offering cigars for sale under the brand names of "Hall's Pantelas Havana Cigar," and other brands, labels, or legends, containing the word "Havana." The complaint also states that the concern published and represented to the purchasing public in advertising matter that by reason of its ownership of plantations on the island of Cuba, and on which its tobacco is grown, and by the further reason that the method employed by it in marketing its product directly to the consumer, a saving of from 50 to 80 per cent. results to the purchasers.

The commission alleges, however, that the tobacco from which respondent's cigars are manufactured was not grown on the island of Cuba, and is not what is generally known and recognized as Havana tobacco, and the respondent does not own plantations on the island of Cuba. It is further alleged that the product of the respondent is not marketed at a saving to the purchasers of from 50 to 80 per cent. and that the price charged is about the usual market price of similar products of equal quality and workmanship.

DOHENY STRIKES OIL, MAKES HIS FIRST BIG FORTUNE, LOSES IT ALL

By E. L. DOHENY

One day in Los Angeles I saw a teamster drive by with a load of black substance that looked like the silver ore I used to get at Silver City, N. M. I jumped on the brake-beam and examined the product more closely. I asked the driver what it was. He said "Breer."

"Breer" is a Spanish term for pitch—an exudation of oil. Reasoning from cause to effect—the whole secret of a "nose for oil"—I decided that there must be oil where this "breer" came from. For this substance is to oil in the ground what resin is to the sap of a tree. I knew this from the experience I had gained from digging for other minerals; and from books on oil that I had been reading recently. So I went out to Westlake Park, where the driver said he found the stuff, and looked around. It looked like oil, all right, but land in that part of town was expensive. So I traced its stratum and found a similar surface about a mile away.

Then I went to Charlie Canfield, with whom I had prospected before, and asked him for his views. I was on the point of going to Phoenix to open a law office, and didn't want to lose any more time on idle prospecting. But the urge was too great. We decided to go to it again.

We bought the corner lot from a grocer, whom we paid on the installment plan, and set to work digging for oil. Just as we had dug for gold and silver.

The place was in a swamp area and we were not disturbed by idle on-lookers. At 150 feet we found some oil; at 225 feet we struck a gusher. Nearly every event which marked an epoch in my life occurred on Nov. 4th or 5th.

My son was born on Nov. 5th. I discovered Kingston, N. M., on Nov. 4th, 1880. And I made the discovery of my first oil on Nov. 5th, 1892!

It augured well. In 18 months we made $1,415,000 in the Los Angeles field.

We went into other areas—Fullerton, Kern River Valley. Others went, too. The great oil scramble was on. In 1896 I became involved in politics for the first and only time. It was the only time that I was in any place at election time where I could qualify as a voter. I supported William Jennings Bryan, and got into a controversy with my bankers, who cut off my credit. This tied up my properties and we had to have a trustee appointed to manage them.

So at 40 years of age I didn't have much ready money. But I left younger than ever, for I had a knowledge of a new kind of mining—how to find oil. And I was happy.

WARSAW, April 5.—The Russian cathedral of Warsaw, which to the Poles has always stood as a symbol of the hated Russian regime, will have ceased to exist in a few months. The decision to demolish this church was taken a year ago, but influential Russians and some people in art circles who admired the special architectural beauties of the edifice, endeavored to postpone its demolition, counting on a possible change of opinion.

Now, however, the destruction has begun. A commission of artists is dismantling the paintings and mosaics

The Sportsman

By WALTER CAMP

NEW YORK, April 7.—The great debate over the proper size and weight of the standard golf ball still rages, and seems to get nowhere. Less Sweetser is one of the latest to enter the forum, with the statement that once a player gets used to the proposed lighter ball, "he will derive as much pleasure from the 25-yard drive as he does now out of a swat of 300 yards on thereabouts."

Come on, all you 300-yard drivers, and see what fun it is to hit the proposed ball 220 yards. And the other 55 per cent. of the golfers may meekly hang their heads while their more powerful cousins talk in yard figures reminiscent of recent financial conversations in Germany.

Fore! Get out of the way and let the stars pass through over the course for which you pay nine tenths of the cost and upkeep! If you can't smite the present ball at least 250 yards, you have no right to express any opinion, even those mighty swatters in their career.

Robert Högren, the sports writer, says: "The U. S. Golf Association has tested out golf balls of various sizes and weights to determine which is a standard ball. The news reports say that the test 'has the approval' of the British golf authorities. That makes it all right. When our granddads drew up their Declaration of Independence they didn't include golf. Golf still rules up there. Our golf British would not dare to shock dear old England by insisting upon any independent thought or ruling."

Bob may be a bit severe on our rubber body, but he voices a general feeling that we should make our laws with a view to the great rank and file of players here, and not be let astray into the field of legislation for the favored few who play the game more hours than they devote to the humdrum work of earning a living.

Not so many years ago, one could count on the fingers of one hand all the really formidable eight oared shell crews in the country. It's not that that way any more. This coming rowing season looks like the best one in history. At least a dozen crews consider themselves good enough to enter the Olympic try-outs at which America's representative at the great international games will be picked. The entrants to date include Yale, Harvard, Syracuse, Duhon Union Boat Club, Bachelors Barge Club and West Philadelphia Boat Club. There will be several others.

Learning to kick a football from the ground instead of from a tee—an achievement made necessary by the changes in the rules—is proving one of the hardest jobs of the spring training season, which now is under way for most big college squads. The kickers are finding it most difficult to get the ball well up into the air, so as to give their runners time to get down the field.

WITH THE MAJORS ON THEIR EXHIBITION TOUR

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 7.—The continuation of hero worship, spreading from a group of boys in Babe Ruth's station in Nashville, Tenn., yesterday and compelled Empire Rowland to call the Yankee-Brooklyn contest in the ninth inning when the score was 8-5. A solid line of small boys, surrounding Ruth on every catch, made life so miserable for the Bambino that he exchanged places with Willie Pipp at first base. When the Yankees went into bat for the first half of the tenth the army crossed the bench and made further play impossible.

Travis Jackson and Bill Terry were the stars of the Giants line up in the 4-2 victory over Memphis.

RECOVER BATTING EYE

(By The Associated Press.) CLEVELAND, April 7.—Recovering the batting eye the Cleveland Indians found two New Orleans pitchers for 18 hits, including 3 doubles and 2 triples yesterday. Manager Speaker plans to send the team thru work outs for the balance of the week.

TIGERS BREAK CAMPS DETROIT, April 7.—A double header with the Cincinnati Reds, the morning game played within the walls of the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, gave the Detroit Tigers their first chance today against a major league team. Twenty-eight players, including eleven pitchers, remained in the squad when training camp was broken at Augusta, Ga., yesterday and three will be lopped before this season opens. Manager Cobb said.

37 YEAR ARM STILL GOOD

(By The Associated Press.) CHICAGO, April 7.—Grover Cleveland Alexander, tested his aged arm in the season's most strenuous work-out yesterday and found the 37-year-old flipper as good as ever. He hurtled the ball against the Wichita Falls, Texas Leaguers and, allowing only one scratch hit, pitched not more than 20 balls to the 12 batters who faced him. The Cubs won 7-3.

RAIN PREVENTS GAME

(By The Associated Press.) PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—Heavy rain caused the postponement today of the second baseball game of the city series between Philadelphia Nationals and Americans.

"I've just been reading Meade Minnergerode's amusing book, 'The Fabulous Forties' (Putnam's) and I can't help thinking how funny the history of this decade or the last would sound written from newspaper accounts and excerpts from current literature by some historian 70 or 80 years hence," writes H. S.

"Of course, we keep the pies out of the streets of New York now and women are a little past the 'female' stage. We can say sex without cringing, toothpicks are no longer served at the smartest tables and most of our inhabitants really prefer the fork to the knife when it comes to bridging the space between the plate and the lips.

"But in our general pursuits we seem to be just repeating the vogues and enthusiasms of the Forties now.

"When all the tumult and shouting caused by Freud and his followers has died down, I fancy much of the literature of this age will sound just as ridiculous to our grandchildren as their choice love stories of 80 years ago do to us.

"And when you read of the future the young folks of those days created with their polka, and how they tried on, layers on, their flasks simply aren't in it at all.

"Minnergerode calls this a record of New York's awkward age—but it seems to me we have never passed it. We're still having growing pains. I fear H. S. contradicts herself (I assume the writer is a woman.) She thinks people are about the same now as in the '40s, yet she admits we without cringing, toothpicks are no longer served at the smartest tables and most of our inhabitants really prefer the fork to the knife when it comes to bridging the space between the plate and the lips.

HAVERS ADMINISTERS DEFEAT TO BOBBY JONES

(By The Associated Press.)

ATLANTA, Ga., April 5.—Great Britain triumphed over the United States in an unofficial golf match for the world's championship here today when Arthur Havers, British open champion, defeated Bobby Jones, youthful American open title-holder two up and one to play on the links of the East Lake Country Club.

Jones, playing on his home course, fought valiantly for the match, but in the final holes of the game was unable to overcome the commanding lead which Havers piled up due to Jones' thorough, although slightly out driven by his opponent. Havers never once was headed after he had taken the lead.

Only once during the entire 36 holes did Jones flash off his accustomed brilliance. That was on the twenty-eighth when by masterful play with a birdie three and cut down Havers' lead to three up. He took the next with a neat par three, held his opponent to halves on the next three holes and then made another stride toward victory by winning the thirty-third, five and seven.

Breathless, the gallery of more than 700 persons, watched him halve the next hole, only to see him lose the thirty-fifth, five and four when victory would have made the match all square and given him a chance for international honors.

Young Stribling is said to be nothing more than a school boy and not a golfer, because he taught Mr. McGuire plenty.

HAVERS IS TO MEET SARAZEN

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 5.—Arthur Havers, British open golf champion, who defeated Bobby Jones, American open champion at Atlanta today, will meet Gene Sarazen, holder of the United States professional title, at Rye, N. Cooney is a wonderful fielder, very fast, and a great batsman, unusual traits for a pitcher. He was fourth in the National League batting averages with a mark of .379.

ST. LOUIS CLUBS AND THE SENATORS ONLY TEAMS THAT HAVE NEVER WON A PENNANT

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 7.—The St. Louis Nationals and Americans, and the Washington Americans, are the only major league teams that have never captured a pennant, records reveal, and, unless a sensational upset occurs, they are conceded slight chance of breaking into the flaring class this year.

Twice the two American league pennant orphans have crawled to within sounding distance of the pinnacle in second place, but that's the best they have done.

Back in 1876, when the National League was first organized, the Cardinals finished second but since that time the St. Louis team has never been higher than third, finishing the season in that position in 1914, 1917, 1921 and 1922.

The Chicago Cubs and New York Giants divide honors for National League pennants, each having led the procession on eleven different occasions.

The Philadelphia Athletics and the Boston Red Sox are out in front in the American League, each having won the konfalon six times.

FIRST OUTDOOR TRACK MEET

(By The Associated Press.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., April 5.—In the first outdoor track meet of the season the University of Virginia defeated Virginia Military Institute 32 1/2 to 33 1/2. The Cavaliers won only one first place, in the low hurdles, and tied for another, when Castleman of Virginia and Foster of V. M. I. ran a dead heat in the century dash.

One new Virginia record was hung up when Walp threw the javelin 172 feet.

won nine pennants, Brooklyn five, Pittsburgh four, and Cincinnati and Philadelphia one each. In the American Chicago has won five, New York and Detroit three and Cleveland one.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC!

There appeared in Friday's papers—an item relative to the City Council passing an ordinance for meat inspection in our city. It was stated that during the war Mr. George S. Dyer, acting under the power of the United States Government, had condemned in one year 42,000 pounds of meat.

This is to advise that we are in favor of meat inspection or anything else for betterment of the health of our citizens. Mr. Dyer has never condemned any meat belonging to us. In justice to the better meat dealers of this city, Mr. Dyer should say who owned this 42,000 pounds of meat he condemned.

MORNING STOCK LETTER

Thomson & McKinnon
NEW YORK, April 7. — The Dawes report has played an important part during the past week in shaping sentiment. It was undoubtedly responsible for a good deal of the buying. The report was expected on Saturday, then on Monday and now some later day this week is fixed as the time for publication. In the meantime, forecasts of the report have been published and it is already apparent that the response from Germany is unenthusiastic. And immediate acceptance of the report by all concerned, may be disappointed. Furthermore, evidence is daily accumulating of receding business, which makes the pessimistic foundation that I know of for a bull market. There is very little public speculative interest in railroads; it is all in industrials, and these should be sold on these bulges.

MORNING COTTON LETTER

Thomson & McKinnon
NEW YORK, April 7. — Market may be narrow again today and with May contracts above 30 cents, this would be evidence of fundamental strength. I am not bullish on the next crop as it approaches 26 cents. Spot cotton is hard to buy and is going to be harder as summer approaches. I think the best policy is to scalp on the bull side, going long of May cotton around 30 cents, selling out of good advances, and then waiting for a weak spot to get in again.

Average twenty industrials 94.05 off .54 twenty rails $3.23 off .20.

NEW YORK COTTON.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 7. — The cotton market opened easy today at a decline of 36 to 44 points under realizing and selling for a reaction which was promoted by easier Liverpool cables and reports of better weather in the south. The advances of last week had evidently left future in an easy technical position and prices yielded readily to the early offerings. May declining to 29.80 and October to 25.10 or about 45 to 50 points net lower on the active positions.

Liverpool cables reported a quiet market with prices lower under liquidation due partly to the advance in sterling exchange but said there was continued good spot demand. The weather map showed no rainfall in the south and rising temperatures were reported.

$25,000 TOBACCO BOX

LONDON, April 7. — In Caxton, Kent, Westminster, repose what is held to be the most wonderful tobacco box in the world. More than 200 years ago it was bought for four pence. It has then so small it held only three ounces of tobacco. Today it is more than four feet high and is insured for 2500 pounds. The secret of its value is that the original box is now enclosed in six others and each is cased in silver.

One of the earliest of popular novels, "Don Quixote," is one of the longest. It contains 461,800 words. The juice of the ink plant of New Granada can be used as ink without any preparation.

The REFEREE

BY ALBERT APPLE.

OIL

Nature sometimes gets on the consumer's side, but not for long. Big gushers of the southern California oil pools stirred the market and smothered the price of gasoline. But an oil pool is like a quart of whisky — holds just so much. Production of the southern California fields have dropped two-fifths from its peak. It's about time for another big oil pool to be discovered. That's the way the system works. Meantime, there still is more oil than needed. Scarcity is a long way distant, if at all.

EYES

Reading in a street car or on a train shortens life, claims Dr. Monaghan, New York's health commissioner. Every time the car lurches, tiny muscles are kept busy adjusting the eyes to the reading matter. Also, the lighting is "poor," Doc cautions. The strain impairs eyesight. Eyes out of order, including loss of vitality, in effect, shortening life. People riding home from work, tired out after the day's toil, should relax the mind and nerves as well as the body.

FATTY

Tom Ton, of Los Angeles, weighs 745 pounds. Hearing which, the circus people didn't wait to see him. They wired an offer and told him to come ahead as a sideshow attraction. Lewis and Clark displayed no more courage going west over a century ago than Tom Ton traveling east. You can imagine him in a Pullman. Reaching New York, they couldn't get him into a taxi, so they loaded him on a truck. At the hotel, he had to use the freight elevator. How kindly nature is in standardizing the size of humanity with so few exceptions.

FORMER DANVILLE Y SEC. RESUMES WORK

The many friends of Edwin Kettle, former secretary of the Danville Young Men's Christian Association, will be glad to know that Mr. Kettle has so far recovered his health as to be able to accept the office of financial secretary with the First M. E. church of Asbury Park, N. J. Mr. Kettle had settled down in Asbury Park and so won their way into the hearts of the church people of that city that this position was offered Mr. Kettle without his having made application for it. The church is one of a very large membership and has an annual budget of $40,000. Mr. Kettle's position is an important one and gives him an opportunity to render a great service to the church as a whole and to the members of the church individually.

PIG KILLS A MAN

ROME, April 7. One of the quaintest accidents ever recorded took place recently at Frattamaggiore, Grumo, near Naples. A peasant was walking through the village when, without warning, a pig fell on his head, killing him instantly. It was discovered that the pig had forced its way through the bars of a balcony on the second floor of a house. How he got on the balcony was not disclosed.

About 50,000,000 persons are gainfully employed in the United States. Canada now has more than 100,000 radio users.

Frances Widener, Sparks' Circus

The Sparks Circus is on its way and will exhibit here for one day only, on Wednesday, April 10. With this mammoth aggregation of scintillating acts there are scores and scores of pretty girls whose skill and daring in amazing athletic feats on the ground and in the air, gives a color and a tone to the performance which will not be found with any other show. Among these pretty girls is Frances Widener, who, with a glance of the eye, a slight motion of the hand, controls and bends to her will fifty tons of elephants. She is seen in the picture at-top one of her pets.
